RECOGNIZING PUBLIC POWER WEEK, OCT. 2-8: A WEEK-LONG CELEBRATION OF CANBY UTILITY'S YEAR-ROUND ELECTRIC AND POWER SERVICE TO CANBY

WHEREAS, we, the citizens of Canby, place high value on local control over community services and therefore have chosen to operate a community owned, locally controlled, not-for-profit electric utility and, as consumers and owners of our electric utility, have a direct say in utility operations and policies; and

WHEREAS, Canby Utility provides our homes, businesses and local government agencies with reliable, efficient, and cost-effective electricity employing sound business practices designed to ensure the best possible service at not-for-profit rates; and

WHEREAS, Canby Utility is a valuable community asset that contributes to the well-being of local citizens through energy efficiency, customer service, environmental protection, economic development, and safety awareness; and

WHEREAS, Canby Utility is a dependable and trustworthy institution whose local operation provides many consumer protections and continues to make our community a better place to live and work, and contributes to protecting the global environment; and

WHEREAS, Canby Utility will continue to work to bring lower-cost, safe, reliable electricity to community homes and businesses just as it has since 1970, the year when the utility was created to serve all the citizens of Canby.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Brian Hodson, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Canby, do hereby proclaim that the week of October 2-8, 2016 be designated Public Power Week to recognize Canby Utility for its contributions to the community and to educate consumer-owners, policy makers, and employees on the benefits of public power. We call upon our community to joins hands with more than 2,000 other public power systems in the United States in this celebration of public power, which is best for consumers, business, the community, and the nation.

Given unto my hand this 5th day of October 2016 in the City of Canby, Oregon.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

WHEREAS, The crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy and dignity, security, and humanity, due to systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological and financial control and/or abuse; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence affects all social groups; and

WHEREAS, intimate partner relationships are a significant social determinant of health, resulting in negative health outcomes for survivors of domestic violence that must be addressed with trauma-informed care; and

WHEREAS, preventing domestic violence is not only possible but is our collective responsibility, and prevention requires significant changes to our social norms regarding gender roles, strength, sexuality, relationships, and the normalization of violence; and

WHEREAS, rural advocates in Clackamas County have provided vital community-based services to 828 survivors since rural programming was initiated in 2014 and the Canby Police Department arrested 24 people for domestic violence from July 2015 to June 2016, demonstrating the local conditions; and

WHEREAS, it is survivors of violence themselves who have been in the forefront of efforts to bring peace and equality to the home.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brian Hodson, I do hereby proclaim the month of October as Domestic Violence Awareness Month and urge all citizens to observe this month by becoming aware of the tragedy of domestic violence, supporting those who are working toward its end, and participating in community efforts.

Given unto my hand this 5th day of October 2016 in the City of Canby, Oregon.
