

2025 Canby Independence Day Celebration – Car Show Registration

The 2025 Canby Independence Day Celebration will be held downtown on Friday, July 4th. Aside from its well established, popular Car Show, this event features a classic, small-town parade, a street fair featuring food and beverage merchants, arts and craft retailers, live music, and children’s activities. This time-honored, family friendly event brings people of all ages – from Canby citizens and visitors – to experience a true, small-town Independence Day. This long-established event traditionally brings thousands of people from Canby and beyond.
