

Attention Gardeners

Join us
March 15 at 4 pm

Mason bees and other native bees in your backyard

Bees play essential roles in maintaining a balanced ecosystem, and are important for pollinating all kinds of plants.

Learn about different types of native bees in the Willamette Valley, and the various kinds of habitat they need.

The first 20 participants to sign up receive a free mason bee house!

Presenter: Heather Andrews

Sign up at the Information Desk or by calling 503.266.3394

Made possible by Friends of the Canby Public Library

